

LexMundi

World Ready

Carl E. Anduri, Jr. President

Carl E. Anduri, Jr. has been the President of Lex Mundi since 2000. Carl brings substantial international law practice and legal association experience to Lex Mundi. Before joining the organization, Carl was a partner at the law firm of Morrison & Foerster in San Francisco where he served as co-chair of the firm's International Practice Group. He began his practice at Morrison & Foerster upon receiving his J.D. from Yale Law School in 1974 and became a partner of the firm in 1980. Carl is a founder and past-president of the Inter-Pacific Bar Association where he was instrumental in organizing the 2,200 member association.

His law practice focused on cross-border investment, financial transactions, project finance and technology acquisitions. He has significant experience representing users of technology in the negotiation of a wide variety of agreements for the acquisition of computer software (including software development agreements), hardware and data processing services. Carl represented financial institutions and companies in domestic and international financings, and represented companies and individuals in cross-border transactions and investments.

Carl served as managing partner of Morrison & Foersters' Hong Kong office from 1982 to 1986. Licensed to practice in Japan as a gaikokuho-jimu-bengoshi from 1987 to 1991, he also served as managing partner of the firm's Tokyo office during this time.

He is an active member of the American Bar Association, the International Bar Association, and the Inter-Pacific Bar Association. From 1985 to 1990, he was chairman of the Business Law Committee of the Asia-Pacific Lawyers Association. Carl is admitted to practice in California and New York.

Lex Mundi is the world's leading network of independent law firms with in-depth experience in 100+ countries. Through close collaboration, our member firms are able to offer their clients preferred access to more than 21,000 lawyers worldwide - a global resource of unmatched breadth and depth.

Lex Mundi - the law firms that know your markets.

www.lexmundi.com

