

LexMundi Pro Bono Foundation

Isis Bous

Managing Director

Isis Bous is the Managing Director for the Lex Mundi Pro Bono Foundation and is responsible for the leadership and strategy of the Foundation, among other duties.

Ms. Bous joined the Foundation in 2017 and came to Lex Mundi Pro Bono Foundation with over a decade of experience working with law firms, inhouse with both for profit and nonprofit organizations, starting her own enterprise, and advising and mentoring social entrepreneurs both domestically and abroad.

Ms. Bous received her J.D. from the Catholic University of America Columbus School of Law and her B.A. from the George Washington University. She also holds Master Certificates in Government Contracting and Comparative and International Law from George Washington University and Catholic University, respectively. While at Catholic University, Ms. Bous was a Thurgood Marshall Inn of Court Member, an editor on the Journal of Communications Law and Policy, and on the Board of Directors of the International Law Students Association.

Ms. Bous is admitted to practice in the District of Columbia and the state of Maryland. She has substantial experience with general corporate matters, policies, contracts, and business. She believes in a conscious approach to business development and the law and has dedicated much of her career to furthering social enterprises and not-for-profit causes.

